

EARTH SPIRIT PAGANS

...A World of Difference

Earth Spirit Pagans (ESP) is a nonprofit religious and cultural organization based in Colorado Springs, CO. We were founded in 1992.

Our Mission: We are dedicated to the preservation and continued vitality of Pagan religions and cultures.

It is impossible to define Pagan for everyone; as it is a religious preference it is subjective in nature.
Earth Spirit Pagans defines Pagan as "An adherent of a polytheistic or pantheistic nature-worshipping religion."

Earth Spirit Pagans is an organization where Seekers come for community, information, and shared rituals.
A place where individuals of different Paths and Traditions can explore and discuss their differences and opinions openly, without fear of retribution or judgment. A place of shared learning without restraints on what can be learned or taught, except as limited by ESP's mission.

Most importantly, we provide a caring and nurturing environment for practitioners of Pagan Paths, helping Seekers and others explore Paganism/Neo-Paganism as a religious and spiritual path.
All are welcome as long as they follow the guidelines that ESP has set forth for its members and guests.
